After Salvation, What?

YOU HAVE MADE THE MOST IMPORTANT DECISION OF YOUR LIFE—at a moment in time you believed in Jesus Christ as your Savior, the perfect Person judged as a substitute for your sins. From that instant of faith alone in Christ alone, you have eternal life and share the destiny of Christ.

For God so loved the world that He gave His uniquely born Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish, but have eternal life.
(John 3:16)

Heaven is guaranteed to every believer (1 Peter 1:4–5). But the quality and impact of the believer's life on earth depend on his execution of God's plan after salvation.

So what is God's plan for you following your personal faith in Christ? Learn and apply Bible doctrine and advance to spiritual maturity! The Bible is the “word of God” that reveals His person and plan (Hebrews 4:12). Bible doctrine is the content of the Word and is called the “mind of Christ” (1 Corinthians 2:16). When God commands you to “let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus,” He wants you to renew your mind with divine viewpoint so that His gracious purpose can be fulfilled (Romans 12:2; Philippians 2:5, KJV).

But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To Him be the glory, both now and to the day of eternity.
Amen. (2 Peter 3:18)

You are kept alive on earth to fulfill your personal destiny in God's plan—to become a mature believer as an expression of God's glory in both time and eternity. Only as a mature believer can you consistently glorify God and receive the highest and best that He has prepared (Ephesians 1:3–6). To reach that objective, you must learn, think, and apply Bible doctrine to the circumstances of life. And in doing so, you will gain capacity for life, for love, for Christian service, for blessings, and for happiness.

Now to Him who is able to keep you from stumbling, and to make you stand in the presence of His glory blameless with great joy, to the only God our Savior, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, dominion and authority, before all time and now and forever. Amen. (Jude 24–25)

R. B. Thieme, Jr., Bible Ministries, incorporated in 1982 as a nonprofit organization, preserves, perpetuates, and disseminates the doctrinal and theological Bible teachings of R. B. Thieme, Jr. Our purpose is to make his teaching available worldwide so that anyone anywhere may have the opportunity to “grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ” (2 Peter 3:18).

There is no charge for any material from R. B. Thieme, Jr., Bible Ministries. Anyone who desires Bible teaching can receive our publications and recordings without obligation. God provides Bible doctrine. We wish to reflect His grace. When gratitude for the Word of God motivates believers to give, they have the privilege of contributing to the dissemination of Bible doctrine.

New Reference Book Bible Doctrine Dictionary

Doctrine is built upon doctrine. Often a single word can bring to mind eternal principles of God's wisdom and grace. For this reason, Pastor Thieme's approach to doctrinal teaching always emphasized the power of vocabulary. Rebound, faith-rest, dispensations, hypostatic union, protocol, divine dynasphere—these are words designed to be learned, understood, and integrated into the Christian's thinking.

Now, drawn from Thieme's personal notes and sermons, Thieme's Bible Doctrine Dictionary presents over eight hundred terms and related doctrines. Within the 320-page dictionary are concise explanations of the vocabulary, biblical metaphors, and practical illustrations taught in Bible class. Cross-references and recommendations for further studies are shown throughout the book, making this a valuable companion to his entire teaching ministry. Please limit requests to one copy.

Publication Summaries

The Angelic Conflict In eternity past, Satan led an angelic mutiny against God. Earth is now the battleground where Satan seeks to prove his case and outmaneuver God. The human race is the focal point of the controversy. Will man choose God's plan of grace or Satan's system of arrogance?

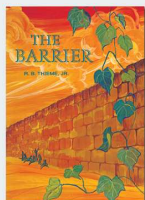

Anti-Semitism is a masterstroke of treacherous evil. Endless Jewish persecutions verify Satan-inspired antagonism toward God's elect people, yet God guarantees that the Jewish race will survive. Old and New Testament passages outline the plan of God for the Jew throughout history.

Apostasy in the Land: An Essay on Historical Trends The Supreme Court of Heaven sends bolts of lightning in the form of punishment to the wayward children of God. This is a call for believers to grow in grace by advancing in His Word, forming the only bulwark against the onslaught of apostasy in the land.

Armageddon On a day yet future, Israel will be the center of the most terrifying conflagration in world history. Armageddon is the war to end all wars! Four gentile empires will converge upon Israel, and the tiny nation will be hopelessly cut off by vast armies. But the Jews' one salvation, their Messiah, Jesus Christ, will return to fight for them, defeat the enemy forces, and establish His millennial kingdom.

The Barrier between God and fallen mankind is insurmountable. No human being can break through it and bring himself into a relationship with God. Only through the saving work of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, was the barrier removed. If you believe in Christ, you cross the line of separation and receive God's gift of eternal life.

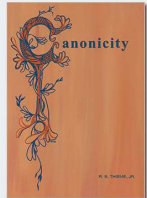

Better Things for Christmas is more than a salvation message for the unbeliever. For the believer whose Christmas is filled with frustration or disillusion, this book describes God's plan for an everyday life of happiness. In the Scriptures are revealed hundreds of better things—all the doctrines, unique privileges, and blessings that God provides for every Church Age believer.

The Blood of Christ There is no special power in the red liquid that flowed through Jesus' mortal body. The "blood of Christ" is a New Testament metaphor for Christ's substitutionary spiritual death, which occurred when He was judged on the cross for our sins. Animal sacrifices in the Old Testament illustrated and foreshadowed this saving work.

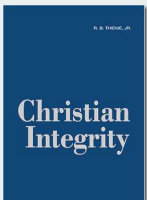

Canonicity describes the divine origin of the Bible and how it has been preserved through the centuries. Knowledge of the Bible's historical formation is a strong defense against the many attacks upon its authenticity and authority.

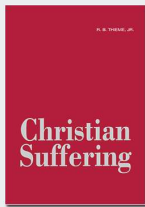

Christian, at Ease! Claim the promises of God, mix them with faith, and enter into God's rest. Bible promises and the doctrines behind them give believers confidence in God. In adversity or prosperity, we can tap these divine resources and find the inner strength and happiness for a vigorous spiritual life.

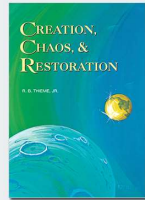

Christian Integrity is the strength of an advancing believer, the way of life that comes from living by the Word of God. Jesus Christ set the precedent with His life on earth. When we "walk in the same manner as He walked," drawing upon the same source of inner strength, we acquire the same virtue and integrity.

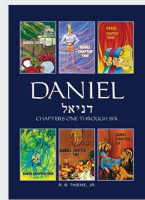

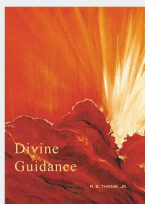

Christian Suffering presents the biblical perspective on suffering. Why do Christians experience pain, distress, and grief? How does God convert discipline into blessing? Understanding God's reasons for suffering equips the believer to handle adversity, eliminate self-induced misery, and accelerate spiritual growth.

Creation, Chaos, and Restoration Who has not gazed at the stars and wondered at the origin of the universe? Did the complex, orderly universe explode into existence by chance? Did lifeless matter accidentally spawn living organisms over millions of years, or was everything created instantly by an omnipotent designer? The Word of God accurately answers these questions about the origin and order of the universe and life within it.

Daniel Chapters One through Six In every age, God's plan includes ordinary people who do the extraordinary: they impact history and glorify God by using divine solutions in adversity. Daniel was such a man. Under intense pressure and catastrophe, his faithfulness and dependence on the Lord distinguished him as a man with a noble purpose.

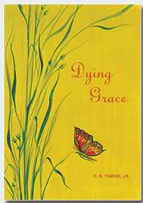

Divine Guidance is the doctrine through which the believer determines God's will for his life. By knowing and applying the Word of God, you know what to think, what to do, and where to go according to God's desires.

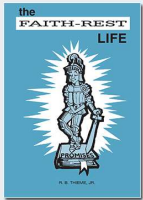

The Divine Outline of History: Dispensations and the Church is etched in time and explained in God's Word. God's plan for mankind unfolds in a sequence of historical eras called "dispensations," each identified by unique characteristics. From creation to the end of time, these successive eras achieve His unchanging purpose.

Dying Grace God has designed dying to be an extraordinary experience for believers in Jesus Christ. Spiritually mature believers, comforted and encouraged by the doctrine in their souls, walk their final journey with no regrets and eagerly anticipate meeting the Lord face to face.

The Faith-Rest Life is a life of moment-by-moment peace. In pressure, adversity, even disaster, God demands that His children do one thing—trust Him! Believe His Word! Mix His promises with faith! If you have trusted God for the greatest thing—salvation, then you can certainly trust Him for the lesser things—solutions to your problems.

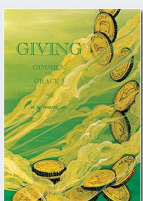

Follow the Colors Military forces in the past used flags, or "colors," to rally soldiers amidst combat confusion. The battle cry, "Follow the colors!" was the command to strike a blow against the enemy and fight to attain victory. Jesus Christ, our Supreme Commander, leads His Christian troops into spiritual warfare, unfurling the colors of Bible doctrine and calling for us to follow.

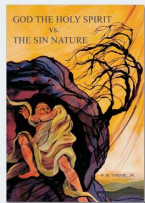

Freedom through Military Victory A strong military functioning under divine principles is necessary to preserve freedom and protect citizens within a nation. For the Christian soldier in harm's way, or for any believer facing adversity, God provides spiritual problem-solving devices to alleviate anxiety and instill confidence in His everlasting care.

Giving: Gimmick or Grace? Giving is a form of worship that commemorates God's grace. But without the correct spiritual motivation, giving is a gimmick inspired by guilt, approbation lust, or desire to manipulate God. This book draws on 2 Corinthians 8–9 to define the correct motivation for giving and to illustrate grace giving in the early Church.

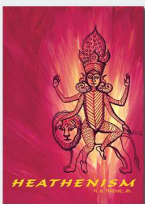

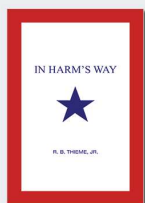

God the Holy Spirit vs. The Sin Nature is a ceaseless inner conflict. Each Christian by his own volition determines who controls his life at any moment. The sin nature, inherent at birth, is a source of temptation for as long as we live—but with the power, mentorship, and guidance of the Holy Spirit, we have the spiritual dynamics to fulfill the Christian life.

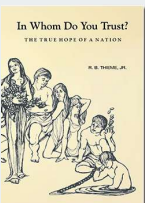

God's Perfect Gift God has offered an eternal gift that will never disappoint—a magnificent present not just for Christmas but for every day. God's gift is the Lord Jesus Christ, who on the cross paid for all sins of mankind. Anyone who accepts God's perfect gift will possess eternal salvation and a relationship with God in time and eternity.

Heathenism answers the question, “What about those who have never heard the good news of salvation?” The reality is, God never overlooks the positive volition of anyone. Even to the remotest corners of the earth, God provides evidence of His existence. He overcomes every obstacle to reveal the Gospel to those who seek Him, assuring that no one is hidden from His grace.

In Harm's Way This message, an edited transcript of Bible classes taught in August 1990, is dedicated to the men and women on active military duty. Military service is honorable and a part of full-time Christian service. In Harm's Way emphasizes to all Christian soldiers, “For the LORD your God is the one who goes with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you” (Deut. 20:4).

In Whom Do You Trust? Throughout history, civilizations rise from bondage to freedom and fall back to bondage. A visual spectrum from virtue to degradation adorns this publication's cover, while the text addresses the only hope for reaching and maintaining the pinnacle of human existence: faith and trust in the Lord Jesus Christ.

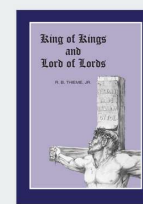

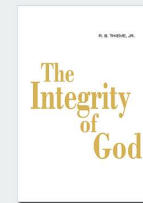

The Integrity of God assures mankind that absolute trust in God is always well-placed. God possesses perfect integrity as part of His eternal essence, and the unyielding strength of His character is behind everything He does or sponsors. This book shows how God's integrity operates in behalf of each Christian, from salvation to the spiritual life to rewards in heaven.

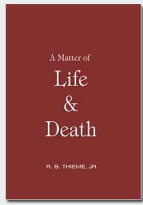

Isolation of Sin breaks the cycle of carnality shackling many believers to past failures. Once you acknowledge your sins to God the Father, He graciously forgives and purifies you from all wrongdoing. Do not reclaim the burden! By “forgetting those things which are past,” you avoid getting caught in reaction, guilt, and a chain of further sins.

King of Kings and Lord of Lords Who was Jesus Christ? Why was this innocent man put to death? Jesus was undiminished deity and true humanity in one person. He came to die as our substitute, the perfect sacrifice for sinful man—the only way of salvation. Delineated in this book are the six trials of Christ, His character and strength in the face of agonizing torture, His work as mediator between God and man, and the significance of His resurrection.

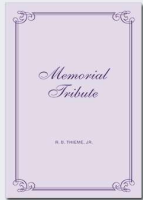

Laura Kay's Legacy “Sweet little Laura Kay” was called to her eternal home on 3 November 1998. Although classified as physically and mentally handicapped, she proved that there are no spiritual handicaps in the Christian way of life.

Levitical Offerings depicted the person and work of Christ before He “became flesh and dwelt among us.” Many generations of Old Testament believers learned from these dramatic ceremonies, and as we view our Lord's work from this ancient perspective, we enhance our appreciation of the magnificent Savior.

A Matter of Life and Death You may not be aware that you were born under a sentence of death. You may think of yourself as a 'good person,' one whom God would never condemn. But you are guilty, helpless to save yourself from this death penalty. There is no ability you possess or any work you can do to redeem yourself. Only God can provide the way of eternal life. This Gospel booklet presents the plan of salvation for the unbeliever.

Memorial Tribute is an edited transcript of a memorial service given by R. B. Thieme, Jr., at Berachah Church. Anytime God removes a person from this life, the decision is based on His perfect wisdom and integrity. Those left behind can rejoice in knowing that the departed believer is in a state of perfect happiness with the Lord.

Mental Attitude Dynamics Behind every face is a mental attitude, a way of thinking. God mandates believers to think divine viewpoint—a perspective of life based on His Word. Ask yourself: Does what I think line up with the Word of God? If so, you will have confidence and stability under all circumstances, an orientation to grace, and an enduring inner happiness.

The Night Before Christmas This poem by R. B. Thieme, Jr., portrays the magnificent message of the first Christmas. To further illuminate the noble purpose for the birth of Jesus Christ, seven truths are recounted from Luke 2:7–20.

The Plan of God reveals God's provision for your salvation, His purpose for your existence after salvation, and the eternal treasures He has waiting for you in heaven. By understanding God and His plan of grace, you can enjoy a life of meaning and purpose and fulfill your personal destiny.

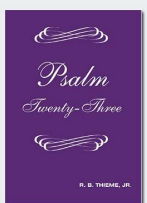

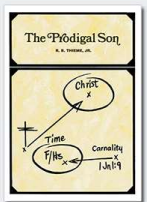

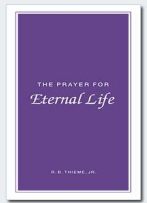

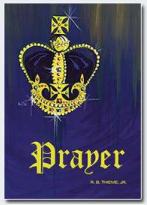

Prayer is the great weapon of the spiritual life. Prayer allows believers instant access to the throne room of God and direct communication with Him. By following the biblical rules for effective prayer, believers can confidently express gratitude to the Father, intercede on behalf of others, and petition for personal needs. God answers prayer in fantastic ways, but always so that His will and plan might be fulfilled.

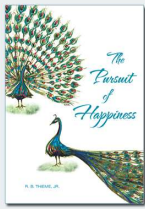

A Prayer for America was offered by Pastor Thieme in the aftermath of the terrorist attack on the United States, 11 September 2001. This is a powerful prayer for a renewed spiritual life in America, for believer-citizens to “humble themselves and pray,” so that the Lord “will hear from heaven . . . and will heal their land” (2 Chron. 7:14).

The Prayer for Eternal Life is dedicated to anyone without Christ, without hope, and without eternal life. Jesus Christ had you personally in mind when He went to the cross. Every sin that you have ever committed—past, present, or future—was imputed to Him and judged so that at this moment you can have eternal life.

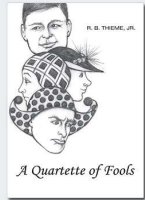

The Prodigal Son left home and squandered his inheritance in riotous living. His elder brother stayed home and worked hard. When the prodigal returned and was restored to his father, the brother became petty, jealous, and resentful. Both sons were sinners, yet neither could be removed from his family relationship. Likewise, born-again believers, whether they sin like the prodigal or the self-righteous brother, are permanent members of God's family.

Psalm Twenty-Three Written by David in his darkest despair, this song of hope holds a treasure of God's grace for all believers. When fleeing for his life, David relied on the true Source of security and wrote, “The LORD is the one who keeps on shepherding me, I cannot and do not lack anything.” David's journey through the death-shadowed valley demonstrates how a mature believer endures suffering and triumphs over his enemies.

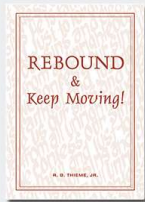

The Pursuit of Happiness Scripture declares King Solomon “greater than all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom.” From an ivory and gold throne he ruled Israel, all the while enriching his court with vast treasures and rare novelties. Yet Solomon did not have happiness. The Pursuit of Happiness confirms that only through fellowship with God and the pursuit of His Word can the believer attain true stability and contentment of soul.

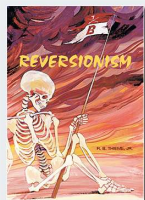

A Quartette of Fools There is no more beautiful sound than four human voices in perfect harmony. Conversely, the most lugubrious ululations emanate from voices clashing in dissonance. Such is the quartette of fools: the atheist, the rich, the shameless, and the Christian fool. Three members cannot sing, cannot produce harmony, yet the fourth produces the finest sounds in the world! Find out where you fit into this quartette.

Rebound and Keep Moving! is the key to the Christian way of life. After salvation the sin nature remains a relentless adversary, tempting the believer to sin and live in carnality. When the believer sins, fellowship with God is lost—spiritual progress ceases. Yet by citing his sins to the Father, the believer is empowered to resume his advance in God’s plan. This rebound procedure defeats guilt over past failures and opens the door to serving the Lord in the freedom of grace.

Rebound Revisited explores the divine directive for dealing with post-salvation sins and regaining momentum in the spiritual life. Rebound requires no emotional gimmicks—no feeling sorry for sins, no penance, no pleading with God for forgiveness. Recovery from carnality is not the work of man; it is the grace of God in action.

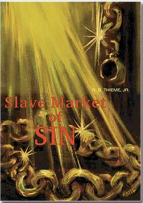

Reversionism Why do believers sometimes act like unbelievers? Anyone who accepts Jesus Christ is eternally saved, but the Christian who revolts against God’s plan and lives in perpetual carnality reverts to spiritual decadence. In reversionism, true values are pushed aside and sin becomes a way of life. Yet God in His grace always provides the way of escape. The believer can recover from reversionism or avoid it altogether through rebound and consistent spiritual growth.

Satan and Demonism Demon activity has plagued mankind since the fall of Adam. Targeted at the human soul, invisible demonic attacks blind unbelievers to the Gospel, distract believers from the spiritual life, and threaten nations with divine judgment. How do people become entangled in demonism? Who can be demon possessed? How can believers protect themselves? The Bible reveals the answers and eliminates the confusion.

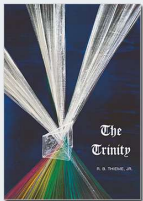

Slave Market of Sin We think of ourselves as free, but we are born into inescapable bondage. We enter the world with a sin nature, separated from God, powerless to establish a relationship with Him. However, the gracious plan of God calls for a savior, a redeemer—the Lord Jesus Christ—to purchase our freedom from the slave market.

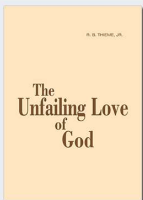

Tongues Many believers today profess to speak a language they do not understand, claiming evidence of the indwelling Spirit. But the spiritual gift of tongues, while legitimate in the early Church, was discontinued once the written canon of Scripture was completed. In the postcanon Church, the Holy Spirit’s ministry is unrelated to such practices. Our desire must be for sound doctrine, not the emotionalism of counterfeit miracles.

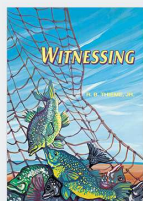

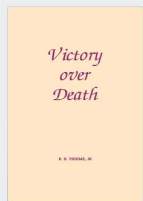

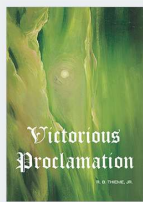

The Trinity is unique to Christianity. No other faith, religion, sect, or philosophy that advocates one God also proclaims that God is Three-in-One. This does not mean there are ‘three gods in one’ but that one God exists as three persons—all possessing the same essential nature. Each member of the Godhead has a distinct role, a specific purpose related to the eternal will and plan of God.

The Unfailing Love of God The Bible declares, “God is love”—love is what God is as well as what He does. Do you understand the magnitude of this love? Or is your concept of God’s infinite love based on your own limited concept of human love? The love of God provides your salvation, motivates your spiritual growth, and secures your eternal future with Him. As you grow to understand God’s love, you learn to reciprocate that love and increase your capacity to love other people.

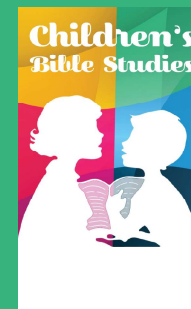

Victorious Proclamation is history's most extraordinary testimony to the Gospel. Shortly after rising from the grave, Jesus Christ made "proclamation to the spirits in prison." These were the fallen angels of Genesis 6, Satan's demons imprisoned in the temporary "pits of darkness" in Hades. When His work of salvation was complete, the resurrected Christ appeared to them to announce His victory and confirm the defeat of their master, Satan.

Victory over Death When a Christian loved one dies, we celebrate that death as a victory—God's victory. God's decision to take a believer home is always perfectly fair and timely. This edited transcript provides comfort from the Scripture and the reassurance that Jesus Christ Himself has provided victory over death. Available in two sizes: a pocket-sized booklet, ideal for enclosure in sympathy cards, and a full-sized book, suitable for memorial or funeral services.

Witnessing is the declaration of the good news of salvation to the unbelieving world. Witnessing can occur anywhere Christians associate with unbelievers, because we are the point of contact in the unbeliever's search for meaning and purpose in life. Effective witnessing, therefore, is the privilege of delivering the free offer of eternal life to the lost and dying, emphasizing the grace message of faith alone in Christ alone.

For Teaching Children

Children's Bible Studies are for parents and teachers looking to communicate Bible doctrine at a child's level. Through a series of creative stories and questions, the books introduce the child to theological vocabulary and doctrinal concepts. When parents combine their own doctrinal knowledge and personal approach with this collection of teaching tools, they can fulfill their responsibility to teach their children the Word (Deut. 6:6-7).

Volume One: What God Wants Me To Know covers the doctrines of sin and salvation, along with basic instructions for the Christian life. Stories and beginning vocabulary help the child understand that Christianity is a personal relationship with God through Jesus Christ. Age 5+

Volume Two: What Is God Like? presents the essence of God—His divine attributes—and emphasizes the fact that the Bible is the very Word of God. Lessons help the child come to love and respect God through knowledge of His person. Age 6+

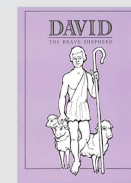

Volume Three: The Persons of the Godhead reviews the basics of salvation, obedience, and divine essence through stories taught by animals. The child is then instructed on all three members of the Trinity and the wonderful relationship he shares with each of them. Age 7+

Source Book: Train Up a Child This resource companion to the book series includes curriculum guidelines, sample lesson plans, visual-aid ideas, glossary of basic terms, and a reference guide for Thieme books and lessons. Designed for parents and teachers of children of all ages.

The Great Adventure provides ten short lessons to teach children how to solve the challenges of life with biblical solutions. Through the grace of God, even a four-year-old who has believed in Jesus Christ can learn, think, and use Bible doctrine. Age 4+

David the Brave Shepherd His faith in the Word and courage in the face of overwhelming odds made David a biblical hero since the time of ancient Israel. This coloring book with simple text is available only for download on the website. An accompanying audio performance is found on the Children's Audio Studies collection. Age 4+
